

CUSTOM JEWELRY THAT TELLS YOUR STORY FREE SHIPPING & 101 DAY RETURNS

AdChoices GEMVARA Start Creating >

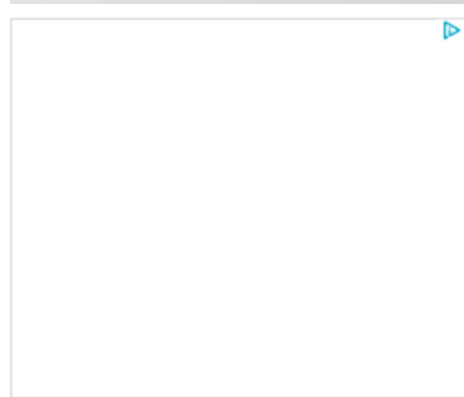

15 Bars to Visit Before You Die

Contributed by Anna Archibald
Posted Aug 19, 2013

JOIN NOW

LOGIN

SLIDE 14 of 16

The Oakroom, Louisville

This lavish hotel bar still features the same ornate wood décor as it did when it opened in 1907. It also stocks an extensive list of bourbons and wine. During Prohibition, the Seelbach Hilton Hotel that houses The Oakroom was popular among gangsters and bootleggers coming to make deals at Kentucky distilleries. According to legend, Al Capone frequented the watering hole and often used it as a poker den. With all that history, how could you stay away?

500 South 4th Street
Louisville, KY
Tel: 502 807 3463

MORE GREAT FOOD & DRINK STORIES FROM ACROSS THE WEB

10 Spirits You're Definitely Mispronouncing

The Drink That'll Drastically Increase Your Sleep Time

See What Barack Obama Was Drinking On SNL

14 Fast Food Employees Confess the 1 Item You Should Never Order

The 5 Biggest Myths About Vodka

COMMENTS

Geoff Ryan says
Aug 30, 2013 at 10:34 PM

Should have known, given your site's name, but the complete lack of mention of beer,

