LOUISVILLE CHEFS TEAM UP FOR HAITIAN RELIEF BENEFIT AT THE SEELBACH'S OAKROOM

(Louisville, KY) January 18, 2010 -- A group of Louisville Chefs with personal and professional ties to The Caribbean will host a special dinner at The Oakroom at The Seelbach Hilton, 500 South Fourth Street, Downtown Louisville, on Thursday, January 28, 2010, to benefit the victims of the earthquake in Haiti.

The proceeds will go directly to Partners in Health (PIH) which has been working on the ground in Haiti providing modern medical care for the past 20 years. With thousands in Haiti suffering from severe injuries as well as disease caused by unsanitary conditions, hunger and dehydration, the need for additional funds is urgent. For more information go to www.standwithhaiti.org/haiti.

The five course event will start at 6:30 pm with a reception, followed by dinner at 7:00 pm. The dinner will feature the cuisines of a variety of Caribbean countries. The cost is $75.00 per person. For more information call The Seelbach Hilton at 502-585-3200.

As these great Louisville chefs continue working on their dishes, here is a preliminary look at this important culinary event:
