The Oakroom concludes “Fun” Series with focus on the holidays

Final edition of “Fun with Wine & Food” on Friday, November 18th

Louisville, KY – November 10, 2011 – The Oakroom, will conclude its popular “Fun with Wine & Food” series on Friday, November 18th at 6:00 p.m. “Holiday Help” is the sixth and final installment of a series that focuses on pairing preferred wines with popular seasonal dishes.

“We can not think of a better way to wrap this year’s popular series than a focus on the holidays and the wonderful food and wine associated with Thanksgiving and the Christmas season,” said Chef de Cuisine Bobby Benjamin. “The event is perfect for anyone who will be hosting holiday parties in the during the upcoming holiday season. We invite everyone to experience a taste of The Oakroom,” he said.

Join friends and food lovers in The Oakroom as Chef Benjamin and Sommelier Julie DeFriend present a “get-you-through guide to selecting wines for your holiday table”.

Guests will experience selected wine and food tailored to Chef’s favorite holiday seasonal picks, while DeFriend will guide guests through an interactive wine tasting as they swirl and sip through a selection of illustrative examples.

The final installment of the series is priced at $28 per person and includes complimentary parking. Seating is limited and reservations are required. To make reservations, please contact Jennifer Biesel at (502) 807-3463 or Jennifer.Biesel@ihrco.com.
